2016 HealthTech Ranking Based on 2015 Percentage Revenue from HC IT (non-LS, non-BPO, non-data)

*The former HP Company is now two entities, HP Inc. (largely hardware such as PCs, printers, etc.) and Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) (technology infrastructure, software and largely services). The HP Co. revenue estimate for calendar year 2015 does NOT include estimates for the months of November or December, 2015, nor estimates of the revenue earned by either of the new entities during November and December, 2015, following the company split.

CSC revenue estimate omits revenue from December, 2015. CSC split on November 30, 2015 into two entities: CSC Global Commercial and CSRA. CSC Global Commercial is serving Fortune 1,000 and non-gov't clients and CSRA has merged with SRA and serves government. No revenue from either of these entities has been included.
